Negar:

When I spoke with Sam yesterday, I mentioned that the Robert exchanged attorney-client communications with my law firm, Ballard Spar, Nina Stillman-Mandel and in-house lawyers at Centra-Tech. At my firm, he would have spoken with Tracy Burnett and me. At Ballard Spar, he would have communicated with Margie Peerce and David Alexrod. There may be others but I don't know their names. At Centra Tech, he would have communicated with Allan Shutt and the 2 other in-house lawyers. I don't have their names, however.

Dan, just following up on our conversation from Wednesday. Also, I don't believe we received from you a list of all attorneys with whom your client may have exchanged attorney-client communications, and those attorneys' email addresses. Can you please send us the list today?

Thanks,
Negar
